

FOUR BOTTLES CORRECTED SERIOUS STOMACH TROUBLE

Oliver Mathieu Spent Small
Fortune Trying to Help
Wife

"I can tell the world that my wife and myself think Tanlac is the best medicine that ever was made," recently declared Oliver Mathieu, well known railroad man, 73 Delnelle St., Montreal, Que., Canada.

"In 1908 my wife strained her stomach in such a way that she became a physical wreck. She suffered such intense stomach pains at times she could not help crying, and got so nervous and weak at one time she could not lift, hand or foot.

"We had paid out money for treatment and medicines so long without results that it looked like her case was hopeless. But, finally, in 1922, after my wife had suffered for fourteen years, I bought her Tanlac and four bottles of the medicine restored her health and strength completely. She gained ten pounds, and has not had a sick day since. In fact, she is the picture of health and I will back up this statement to anyone. Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40,000,000 bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills, for constipation, made and recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC. (Adv.)

TWO PROBLEMS OF SURFACE DRAINAGE Expensive Remedial Schemes Are Subject of Report

To settle the Bowker Creek drainage question permanently to the satisfaction of the three municipalities of Victoria, Saanich and Oak Bay would entail an expenditure of $500,000.

The sum is set out in a report presented by City Engineer Preston to the aldermen this afternoon in works committee, in reporting on the troublesome problem which has already entailed litigation between residents and the municipal authorities.

The divides the cost between Victoria ($180,000), Oak Bay ($170,000) and Saanich ($150,000). Pending this costly and extensive scheme, to mitigate the trouble at Oakland Avenue, he recommends enlarging the drain to carry 100 per cent. more water at Doncaster and Oakland Avenues at a cost of $3,000, and also in order to divert the drainage off private property to the street to provide another small sum.

PEMBERTON MEADOWS

Another large drainage scheme, upon which he recommends a start at the lower end is that of the Pemberton Meadows, particularly the section serving Quamichan, Cowichan and Redfern Streets, a partial scheme costing $24,000 and full undertaking $40,000. Recognizing that the council cannot begin to spend enough to make a thorough job this year, he suggests a start with the scheme.

Milk cases, ratification of the negotiations with Oak Bay and other matters will occupy the attention of the aldermen at the special council sitting during the afternoon, and when that is over, the reverted lands committee of the council will hold a meeting.

NO U.S. DELEGATE FOR REPARATIONS PLAN

hope his vote would be given in favor of adequate payment by Germany, seeing this country as one of the results of the war, is paying the United States $10,000,000,000.

The Daily Express says it is hoped the United States will agree to the proposal and that it is held there is no reason why she should refuse to participate in the Reparations Commission when the experts' report and the German loan are under consideration.

NOT HOPEFUL

The diplomatic correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, assessing the Washington Government will not sanction United States membership on the commission, and says:

"The alternative of calling in the agent-general for reparations, who under the Dawes scheme is to be an American, is a questionable device, being he would be a subordinate of the commission and could hardly act as arbitrator when, owing to his office, he might be found in the position of a complainant."

PRaise FOR MACDONALD

Premier MacDonald receives some remarkably warm commendation from the opposition press upon his Paris trip.

"He has saved the conference, prevented an open disagreement between Great Britain and France on the eve of the conference and made it possible to go on with the work preparatory to application of the experts' report," says The Times.

The same credit is given him by The Morning Post, The Daily Mail and The Daily News, but it is stressed that the situation is full of difficulties and that while for the present there is no reason to assume that the conference will fail, it certainly is not to have an easy task.

BRITISH DEBATE

London, July 11.—Debate in the Commons on the MacDonald-Herriot conversation and the Allied conference on the experts' plan for German reparations has been set for next Monday.

In the memorandum which accompanied the original British invitation to Italy, Belgium and Japan to attend an inter-Allied conference, the British Government proposed that in the event of a German default the matter might be referred to the League of Nations or The Hague Arbitration Tribunal, thus lifting it out of the hands of the Reparations Commission. It was this prospect which caused so much resentment in France and gave M. Poincaré a weapon with which to attack Premier Herriot.

PLAN ABANDONED

A statement made in the Commons yesterday by Premier MacDonald shows that the idea of reference to the League or The Hague has been dropped and that in its stead an endeavor is being made to secure United States help for such arbitration duties.

The Premier refused to acknowledge he had withdrawn, explaining that the whole question had been left to the pending Allied conference to decide. But in essence, it is a withdrawal, since no mention is now made of the League or The Hague, and it is considered evident that Mr. MacDonald concentrated his whole efforts on preventing as far as he was able, any countermeasures likely to lead to the overthrow of the Herriot Government or miscarriage of the coming conference. The Prime Minister admitted the French Government was still withholding its opinion on the proposed American arbitrator.

NO MILITARY PACT

Two other important points came out in Premier MacDonald's statement, namely, that the British Government declined to associate the question of inter-Allied debts with the experts' report and would equally refuse to agree to any military pact with France.

"It is essential," said Mr. MacDonald, "that the inter-Allied conference fixed for July 15 should be held, as many details have to be settled preparatory to carrying out the Dawes report, and some of them will require thorough discussion by legal and treasury experts, and arrangements which will not always be easy to make."

"French opinion is not willing to allow the experts' report to be regarded as a substitute for the Versailles Treaty, but is willing to accept it as a new and better way of dealing with the reparations question."

Firemen Called And Two Fighting Men Quickly Fled

Fort William, Ont., July 11.—The fire department superseded the police department as a queller of disturbances here yesterday. A dispute in the east end of the city had led to a couple of men coming to blows and a woman rushed to the telephone and called to central, "A big fight here."

Central understood her to say there was a big fire, and turned an alarm, and when the fire department arrived the two men and the woman thought the troops had been called out and took to their heels.

SUMMER SCHOOL REGISTRATION IS HEAVY THIS YEAR

are frequently made by school trustees before making appointments. Some of the teachers attending this year have registered at the Summer School for five years in succession. The oldest one is around seventy years of age and the youngest ones are those who have graduated this year from Normal and are attending the classes on the recommendation of Normal School principals.

TWENTY-FIVE COURSES

J. W. Gibson, M.A., who has been an official of the Summer School since the first one was held in 1915 and for five years has been director, has planned a comprehensive course of study under capable directors and with a few exceptions the courses are well filled. The registrations are particularly heavy in geography, history and primary grade work. In the latter over ninety teachers are attending. There are twenty-five courses offered with a staff of over thirty instructors and the well-equipped High School lends itself admirably for the purpose of a Summer School. The social side is not overlooked. During free periods the tennis courts are invaded and tennis tournaments among some of the good players who are here this year have been arranged. The Equinault School Children will sing in the auditorium, the night which is an open night. Next Friday the teachers will attend in a body the at fresco play to be given in the grounds of Sefton College.

There is also a swimming class of thirty-five ladies who use the Y.M.C.A. pool.

HIGH STANDARD

The greatest attraction of the school, Mr. Gibson states, is in the variety and excellence of the numerous courses offered. A few new courses have been added and the older courses remodeled and improved. Every effort has been made to make the courses of the highest standard of the teacher in the daily programme of his or her classroom. The success of the Summer School since its inauguration ten years ago has been largely due to the high standard of work maintained by the instructors. In addition to instructors who have attended in previous years, several new ones have been added this year. The social life of the school affords a real attraction to the students and instructors alike. Not the least of the benefits arising out of the Summer School is the daily personal contact with fellow teachers and instructors. Exchange of ideas and experience is mutually beneficial to the members of any profession and most of all to those engaged in the teaching profession. Such association is second in importance only to the instruction of the classroom.

MERGING OF POLICE FORCES DISCUSSED

many policemen, but from too many police forces. There was a terrible lack of cohesion and co-ordination. Local jealousy between forces was common," he said.

REDUCTIONS REGRETTED

Chief of Police Chris H. Newton of Winnipeg, president of the association, in his presidential address yesterday expressed regret that municipal, provincial and Federal governments, in their desire for economy, were all seeking to reduce police forces at a time when crime was rampant in the country. Chief Newton was of the opinion there were too many laws and too much overlapping of laws. Too much notice was given to reformers who wished to experiment on the public without regard to the liberty of the individual.

He urged the formation of parole boards in each province and the use of a secret code between police forces.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITY

Toronto, July 11.—Oscar Ruby, formerly of Winnipeg, a representative of the International Fuel Company, was killed in an automobile accident while driving on the Ontario Provincial Highway near Orillia yesterday.

French Senate Gives New Premier Vote of Confidence

Paris, July 11.—The French Senate to-day by a vote of 246 to 15 expressed its confidence in Premier Herriot after the Premier had stated that the object of his Government was to re-establish cordial relations with Great Britain.

TO INVESTIGATE ALLEGED FRUIT COMBINE IN B.C.

Federal Official Arrives on Coast to Start Careful Inquiry

Investigation into the charges that a fruit combine exists in Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg, will open in Vancouver within the next two or three days, it is understood at the Department of Agriculture.

Major Lewis Duncan of Toronto, who has been appointed by the Federal Government to make the inquiry under the Combines Investigation Act, is in Vancouver.

No date for the first session of the inquiry has been set, but the investigation has been pending for some time.

Definite charges have been made that a combine to control the distribution and prices of fruits in the whole of the west is in full operation.

There is the keenest kind of competition among the brokers operating on Water Street, said one Vancouver dealer. "If a car of fruit is offered to any of us by any broker he must bid the price of at least a half dozen other brokers."

It is held, in fact, that the competition in fruit has been, and is, actually ruinous, and that it resulted in price-cutting last year and the year before that brought the growers almost to the verge of ruin.

All admit that there has been an effort made to secure reasonable price control, but say that it has chiefly emanated from the growers, and that they are quite justified in any action they have taken, as without a degree of co-operation or agreement in the marketing of this perishable product stability of price is impossible.

DRY KILN OF MILL DESTROYED BY FIRE

Blaze in New Westminster Was Menace Until Firemen Conquered it

New Westminster, July 11.—Fanned by a strong southwesterly wind, flames which started in the sawdust pile of the disused Royal City Mill here yesterday afternoon burned down a dry kiln, swept across Columbia Street and narrowly missed setting fire to a private Japanese schoolhouse, the Gairbairn lumber mill and several other buildings in the vicinity. The blaze assumed serious proportions, and Fire Chief Watson and his men from No. 1 Fire Hall had difficulty in keeping the flames confined to the burned-over area.

Leaders Urging Russians to Create Merchant Marine

Moscow, July 11.—Minister of War Leon Trotsky, "Commissar" Leonid Kravich and other Soviet officials at a great public gathering here last night urged Russia to create her own mercantile marine in order to take care of the country's growing exports, avoid dependence on foreign-owned vessels, strengthen the Red navy in time of war and secure lower freight charges.

Trotsky, who in spite of his recent defeats within the party councils, seems to retain a firm hold on the masses, was given a tumultuous reception.

MARCONI PREDICTS CHEAPER WIRELESS

Inventor Tells Audience in Rome About Latest Achievements

Rome, July 11.—William Marconi, inventor of wireless, described before an audience yesterday in the historic Capitoline Hall the recent achievements in wireless, especially the new system patented by the Marconi engineer, Franklin, and predicted an era of cheaper wireless communication.

Mr. Marconi told of experiments which showed that a station using twelve kilowatt power under the new system had better results than with 200 kilowatts under the old system. It was possible, he said, to communicate between England and St. Vincent, Cape Verde, with stations of one kilowatt power. He related experiments which had been made in communicating between Great Britain and America with waves ninety metres in length instead of those of thousands of metres usually used.

APARTMENT HOUSE CAUSE OF DISPUTE

Little Rock, Arkansas, People Object to Building Near State Capitol

Little Rock, Ark., July 11.—The power of the United States District Court has been invoked by a Memphis, Tenn., corporation in an effort to prevent the city of Little Rock from enforcing a zoning ordinance which would prohibit the erection of a seven-story hotel apartment building within a few hundred feet of the state capitol building.

Arkansas is proud of her magnificent state house, which sits on a hill overlooking the city, the Arkansas River and historic Fort Root across the river. Several acres south and west of the new capitol have been acquired by the state and made into a park, but the Legislature has postponed action to acquire land north and east of the building which was contemplated to round out the capitol grounds.

Recently the Tennessee corporation announced several of these lots and announced its intention to erect a large apartment which would overlook the capitol and even tower above the huge dome of the state house. Immediately a movement was started by those who said they sought to maintain the beauty of the capitol grounds and prevent the erection of the building. This culminated in the passage of a city zoning ordinance, prohibiting the erection of buildings more than three stories high within certain prescribed limits near the capitol.

CANTEEN FUND PLAN OPPOSED BY CURRIE

Montreal, July 11.—For five years no government has been able to come to a decision as to the object to which these canteen funds should be devoted, and now it is proposed to pass the burden to a board of trustees in each Province, not only to determine the object to which the fund shall be devoted, but to create the machinery for the fund's disposal. Sir Arthur Currie declared in a statement on the decision of the Government to dispose of the Canadian Canteen Fund, amounting to more than $2,000,000, in the manner outlined.

Sir Arthur's statement continued: "If in five years no government, with the aid of its staff, is able to make a decision as to the object to which the fund should be devoted, the task will hardly be found easier by a board of trustees asked to serve without remuneration. However, the Government will have shifted the responsibility, and if criticism comes it will not be laid at their door."

STORM SCENE IN DIET OF POLAND

New Law Regulates Rights of Minorities in the Republic

Warsaw, July 11.—The Polish Diet yesterday witnessed stormy scenes and fights when the bill proposed by the Polish Government regulating the rights of national minorities in the Polish republic was passed despite the violent protests of minority representatives of the Ukrainians, White Russians, Germans, Russians and Jews. The bill limits the use of language other than Polish in local communications with local authorities and refuses the demands for self-government of territorial minorities.

U.S. ELECTION RESULT AWAITED IN CANADA

Ottawa, July 11.—There was a brief reference to reciprocity with the United States in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. On a vote of $30,000 for expenses in connection with the negotiating of a treaty, Sir Henry Drayton, former Finance Minister, expressed the view that such a vote was hardly necessary, adding that a trip to Washington would not cost very much.

Hon. J. A. Robb, Acting Minister of Finance, replied that a trip to Washington might cost very much but that it would be well worth while if it

NEW RACIAL TYPE IN HAWAII GROWS

Japanese Born in Those Islands Not True Japanese, Says H. M. Thayer

Tokio, July 11 (Canadian Press).—There is no Japanese problem, no race issue and no immigration question in Hawaii. These issues were taken care of long ago by the simple process of evolution, according to H. M. Thayer, former Attorney-General of the Territory of Hawaii, in an address here.

"The children of Japanese parents reared in Hawaii have quickly assimilated the American ideals and ideas," said Mr. Thayer. "We have found that the Japanese can be assimilated."

PARADE AMENDMENT

There was a long discussion on what was designated by Sir James Loughheed as the "Ross ballot." The debate on this subject came to a sudden termination when an amendment had been moved to the Ross amendment by Senator F. F. ## OUR CREDIT SOUND

FOR some time British Columbia's bonds have been selling equally as well as those of the Dominion of Canada and much better than those of many of the Provinces. In fact when the Government floated a loan some time ago it was considered that the terms then obtained would not be improved upon for a considerable period.

Fresh evidence, however, of the impression which the Government's method of financing has made upon the financial world is now revealed in the price at which the new $6,000,000 issue will be disposed of. These bonds are to yield the remarkably low rate of 4.60, which is the lowest price paid by any Canadian Province in the last ten years, and a better figure received for any loan floated by this or the previous Government. Moreover, it is also lower than the rate paid by the Federal Government on its last big issue.

These facts speak for themselves. The financial houses of this or any other country are cold-blooded institutions and always insist on being "shown." They seldom indulge in compliments without the very best of reason. On this account Mr. Hart may take considerable satisfaction from the congratulatory comments of the most important of the American bidders, while the parenthetical suggestion that this firm be notified when the Province is in the market again will, of course, not be lost upon the Government.

No doubt this will be the last bit of borrowing that Mr. Hart will do for the Province before he leaves a ministerial post which he has held with such conspicuous success for nearly eight years. He will, therefore, be able to step into the realms of private business with the knowledge that he left public office with the credit of British Columbia on a higher plane than it has been for considerably more than a decade.

GOOD BUSINESS

WHILE the large variety of style in automobile license plates is proof in itself of the visitors in our midst, it is only after an examination of the actual figures that an accurate idea of the importance of motor tourist travel to this Island is obtained.

It is disclosed that nearly 3,500 motor cars have been carried by the three vessels which are plying between here and American points up till July 6. And when one considers that the present season is only just reaching its height this excellent showing, from a business point of view, is eloquent of the wisdom of pressing for this sort of communication between the Island and our neighbor to the South.

With last season's records for this sort of travel already shattered, and with a very considerably larger movement on the ordinary ferries on the triangle run, it is easy to understand what next year's business will be like when the added attraction of an Amusement Centre will act as an important factor in holding visitors here for a longer period.

WHY THE HURRY?

CONSERVATIVE members of the Legislature who have been rushing around the Province and even to Ottawa to get somebody to fill the place of Mr. Bowser as leader of their party in this Province overlook one important consideration, and that is that Mr. Bowser has not yet resigned as far as we are aware.

As a correspondent points out in our columns, Mr. Bowser was not chosen leader by the handful of Conservative members of the Legislature. He was selected by a convention of his party, which included delegates from all over the Province and only a similar convention is competent to determine whether a successor should be appointed or not, and to make an appointment if such a course should be considered necessary.

Certainly Conservative electors throughout British Columbia did not give the members of their party on Vancouver Island in the House a mandate to put Mr. Bowser aside and appoint somebody in his place. The leader's defeat in Vancouver did not automatically deprive him of the leadership. Moreover, the election is not yet finished and will not be until after the absentee vote has been counted.

The haste with which the self-appointed would-be Warwicks among Conservative members declared Mr. Bowser's post vacant and tried to find a successor is poor return for the twenty-three years of energetic service the leader has given his party. This is especially so when we reflect upon the fact that some of those who are in such a hurry to depose him have yet to spend one hour in the House.

AGREES WITH US

SIR ARTHUR CURRIE does not like the proposal of the Dominion Government to entrust the C.E.F. canteen profits fund to a board of trustees for distribution. He thinks it is "passing the buck."

None better than Sir Arthur realizes the variety of suggestion which reached the Government when this subject was before the public a year or more ago. Returned soldier organizations argued about the methods that should be adopted. A questionnaire was distributed and dozens of schemes were devised. Even considerable heat was generated. And a board of archangels could not have straightened matters out then.

We agree with Sir Arthur, however, when he says that "the money would be best spent for education, vocational or otherwise, of returned soldiers." This supports our suggestion that the disabled veteran's sense of independence could be more or less restored and his health improved if, for instance, the Red Cross workshops could get more working capital.

If we could advise the trustees we should say turn at least three parts of the total over for use in work of this kind.

A USEFUL INQUIRY

CANADIAN business interests in Great Britain have very naturally learned with considerable satisfaction of the Dominion Government's intention to send two representatives to sit on the Imperial Committee which will inquire into the distribution of Dominion foodstuffs in the Old Country. In the country's best interests the Ottawa authorities may be depended upon to select men fully capable of discharging what is undoubtedly an exceedingly important mission.

It is pointed out in expert quarters that an inquiry by Canadians into the distribution of some very important lines of Canadian foodstuffs in Britain should be of immense value to this country. For it is a fact that there are a number of features about the sale and distribution of certain of our products on the other side which are difficult to understand. For instance, a Government investigation two years ago showed that retail fruit stores in London were actually making 300 per cent. profit on Canadian apple products, and the war price of nine pence per bushel is even now being charged.

Other Canadian products fare better than our apples; but there is no doubt that a general inquiry to embrace cheese, butter, canned salmon, and other products should bring information to light upon which the trade Canada already enjoys in these commodities could be further expanded.

Be careful that your thoughtlessness does not start a forest fire and destroy your own property.

Labor in many lands will await with sympathetic interest the bulletins which announce the condition of Mr. Samuel Gompers.

Dispatches from Kamloops indicate that the people of that neighborhood are delighted that the Kamloops-Kelowna branch line of the C.N.R. is at last to be built. This project in operation will mean considerable development in the dry belt.

When Mr. Hart took up the portfolio of Finance in the Provincial Government nearly eight years ago the best terms he could get for a loan were something like seven and a half per cent. The difference now is almost like the difference between a furnished and an unfurnished house. His successor will be on "velvet."

Up till June 7, it is reported to Canadian National headquarters, 1,012,000 visitors had been through the C.N.R. Pavilion at Wembley. That means that this number of people have seen Canada at the Exhibition, for visitors are "doing" Wembley systematically, exhibit by exhibit, and C.N.R. and C.P.R. form the "ends" of the main Canadian building.

NEXT!

From The Calgary "Albertan"
The next thing on the programme will be the proper interpretation of the understandings that seem to have been reached between the Government and the postal workers on strike.

A STREAK OF LUCK

From The Hamilton Spectator
Some fellows are lucky. When a St. Catharines motorcyclist crashed into a fence and suffered a fractured thigh-bone last night, it was a doctor who found him lying on the side of the road.

AT WEMBLEY

From The Morning Post
That the greatest study of mankind is man can be worthily demonstrated at Wembley, at any rate. Not the least amusing part of a visit to the exhibition is watching the visitors as they examine the various exhibits. At one of the kiosks in the Indian pavilion is a very charming lady salesman in native dress, who sits with dignity among her rich wares, and deals with clients with gracious condescension. One man was so much interested in this lady as to cause serious annoyance to his wife. Becoming aware of this, the husband artfully endeavored to suggest that the real cause of attraction for him was the lady's English. "Don't she talk English plain?" he ejaculated to his fuming wife. His wife gave a snort. "Plainly," she retorted, as she made off amid the smiles of the crowd.

ESCAPE

From The Midland
Let me not be caught in the corn,
Or the waves, or the trees;
Not even a bird will I be
When I die.
Once in a while to be born
Into the kinship of these
Strange, strong things of the sea
And feel and die.
When I slip the net that swings
Hot from the sun,
And break this tangle of grass,
I will go
As nothing that stirs or sings,
Unborn, undone,
Into the dark, and pass
To things I know.
—Florence G. Jenney.

Dr. Frank Crane
On "The Great Creators"

(Copyright)

THE great creators are the great minds.

Labor does not create.
Capital does not create.
It is mind that creates.

Even the creator of the world, that First Cause which reason forces us to suppose was not a banker nor a laborer, was a Thinker. For God, we are informed, "is a Spirit," and a spirit is pure mind, not pure hands, not pure possessions.

The real wealth of a country therefore lies not in its laboring class, but in its thinking class.

We could name half a dozen Thinkers who have added more to the wealth of the world than any hundred millionaires or any hundred thousand titans.

Take Edison, who devised many things, and Bell, of the telephone, and Elias Howe, who invented the sewing machine, and Whitney, who conceived the cotton gin, and Fulton, who thought of the steamboat, and Ford, who developed a great automobile industry; these men have added more to the wealth of the world than all the Croesuses, Rothchilds, Rockefellers, Carnegies and Monte Cristos put together.

Some time ago the Wall Street Journal said:

"Once a Scotch boy gathered some pieces of silver together—not many—the result of some years of saving from his labors as a plough-boy on his father's farm. He walked to Edinburgh, where he invested his silver in linen and lace, beads, ribbons and gaudy things, attractive to feminine fancy. He made a pack of them all, which he carried on his back, and he started out as a peddler. He trudged to London. He arrived in dirt and in rags, and—with a big idea."

This big idea has since proved itself the backbone of the economic world. It is the centre, the nucleus, of the world's rebuilding now. William Patterson was the lad's name, and from his idea grew the Bank of England, which laid the foundation of the commercial prosperity of England and made a safe, sure and secure financial centre for the commercial enterprise of the entire world.

And every man, in every business, everywhere, so long as our economic system lasts, is whether he knows it or not, more indebted to this man's one idea for his own comfort and happiness than to all of his own best exertions. The great minds are the creators of the wealth of the world. The rest of us, readers and users.

Champlain's Accord With the Indians

ON July 11, 1616, Champlain returned to his little settlement at Quebec after the most extended and the most illuminating of all his journeys of exploration in the valley of the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes. In the Summer of the year previous, 1615, with a few followers he had proceeded to the site of the present Montreal, then a much-frequented trading place, thence northward up the Ottawa River to the Deep River, up this to the Mattawa, up the Mattawa, to its head, by a portage, to Lake St. Lawrence, by the French River to Georgian Bay. Skirting the shores and threading the island maze of this beautiful water he had come southward to Matchedash Bay and landed near the present town of Midland in what was the country of the Hurons, who lived in the modern county of Simcoe, south of the Severn River and between Lake Simcoe and Nottawasaga Bay.

The Hurons received him joyfully, inasmuch as they thought him dead because he was so late in coming. He had promised to accompany them southward on an expedition into the heart of the country of their enemies, the Iroquois, on the southern side of Lake Ontario. As he had not come they had dispersed their forces assembled for the war party. When he arrived they summoned these again. Meanwhile Champlain visited several of the thirty or so villages crowded into this area in which lived thirty thousand souls, and noted their customs and the manner of their life. The war-party assembled at Chabague, a large village on the site of the modern village of Hawkestone, between Barrie and Orillia. From here they paddled across Lake Simcoe and through the Trent Valley system of lakes and rivers to Lake Ontario, across to the south shore, where they hid their canoes and marched inland thirty miles or so to a fortified town of the Ontario, just to the south-east of Oneida Lake in the present New York State. Here the Hurons failed on account of their lack of discipline, their excitability and instability of character to follow Champlain's directions. They could not take the town and they retreated after ravaging the land, and proceeded across to the present Kingston, up the Cataraqui River into the wilds of Frontenac, Lennox and Addington, and Hastings Counties to hunt, thence home to Chabague just before Christmas.

Champlain had wished to go to Quebec from Cataraqui, but he had wounds in the leg and knee, and, besides, the Indians would not supply him a canoe. He was forced to spend the Winter among them. This time he used to study further his allies and also to explore westward as far as Lake Huron, on whose shores lived the Ottawa nation in the counties of Bruce and Huron. He visited also the Petuna or Tobacco nation living in the Blue Mountains in Grey County. The customs and manners of all these savages were carefully noted and Champlain's narrative forms one of our chief sources of knowledge to-day. Meanwhile Champlain had formed the project of traveling northward in the Spring to Hudson Bay of which he had heard from Indians and from the records of Henry Hudson's voyage six years before. He had attempted to find it in 1613, but had penetrated no farther than Las des Allumettes on the Ottawa. Now, however, he was prevented again for the Algonquians, who were to have guided him on his way had a quarrel with his Huron friends, and blood was shed. Champlain was called in as arbitrator, and though managing to keep peace, he was not able to avoid giving offence to the Algonquians who retired in a sulk and would not go north with him. Champlain left his Huron friends on whom he had made a deep and favorable impression while he was living in their lodges and tramping their country, in May. Some of them accompanied him to Quebec, and on their arrival were greatly struck with the little buildings there, so magnificent beside their own. Promising to start a settlement at Montreal, which, however, was not done until seven years after his death, he gave them presents, and they left him with regret. Ten days later he was aboard his ship for France, where a fair young bride was praying for his safety and his coming.

THE DEMOCRAT NOMINATION

To the Editor—I notice in an editorial in your excellent paper yesterday a statement to the effect that Mr. Smith, of New York, was defeated for the Democratic nomination by reason of the fact that he was a Catholic. That I feel moved to say, is hardly correct. Forces have been operating in the United States for a long time that have aroused religious prejudice. For years our gates have been unguarded. Foreigners have been allowed to swarm in at will, until the native stock has been in danger of submergence. New York City is eighty per cent foreign. This, our greatest city, with a population greater than that of twelve Western states, has been captured by the alien. The native American is a negligible quantity. This is largely true in other cities, notably Chicago. In consequence of this there was a well-defined fear that American institutions would be swept away, and the alien get control. This accounts for the demand for an immigration law, and for the organization of the Klan. The Catholic Church unfortunately made itself conspicuous by siding with the alien in antagonizing this absolutely vital law.

You folks in Canada would not submit to foreign domination, nor will we. Hence the demand for American for Americans, governed by Americans.

Now very unwisely the Democratic party, unlike the Republican party, allowed the religious issue to be brought up. That precipitated the Klan fight, and made impossible the nomination of either Smith or McAdoo. Indeed many believe that it has hopelessly split the party. Mr. McAdoo was the choice of the party in the primaries and was entitled by the nomination. The coalition against him has created a resentment that will not pass with the Davis nomination.

I would say that Mr. Smith was defeated because he represented the alien, the wet, the reactionary, and the East against the West. No one can understand the United States unless he recognizes the growing antagonism between the two sections. Now to something more pleasant. I have spent four of the most delightful days of my life in your city. The high order of papers and addresses in the convention, the color and restful atmosphere of your city, together with its rare beauty, the congenial folks I have met, have all conspired to make these days memorable. Allied to these are the full and accurate reports you have given, for which I thank you. With body and mind refreshed, and my love for Canada and its noble people intensified, I return to my own country better fitted for service.

BOY SCOUTS' OUTING

To the Editor—The executive of the Victoria District Boy Scouts' Association wishes, with your kind permission, to thank, on behalf of the Boy Scout Associations of Nanaimo, Ladysmith, Parksville, Errington and other up-Island points, the many people who so generously and hospitably housed the visiting Boy Scouts and Cubs during the stay of H.M. Special Service Squadron at the port of Victoria. Two representative patrols from this district left to-day on a tour of the Island under the leadership of the assistant district commissioner, Mr. H. T. Ravenhill. It is felt by the association here that nothing could have given more salutary an impetus to the movement than this interchange of visit among the various Island associations, toward the success of which the prompt and thorough co-operation of private citizens and public bodies here and at other points has done so much to assist. The touring contingent has been assured the most cordial welcome at all centres, included in its itinerary, and with this demonstration and the generous and continual backing of the movement in your valuable paper, for which the executive is profoundly grateful, it is felt that scout work on Vancouver Island will enlist a far larger measure of public interest than at any period in its history.

more Yesterday

A wedding at which only relatives were present took place last evening at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 953 South Hampshire Road, Oak Bay, when Rev. Thomas Menzies officiated in marriage Margaret Smilie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nesbitt, and Mr. William Lawley Blakemore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blakemore of Alberni, formerly of Victoria.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome wedding gown of white georgette satin and a handsome lace veil attached to the coiffeur with a wreath of real orange blossoms. A shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and Swansons completed the bridal attire.

Miss Maud Tait as bridesmaid looked smart in a frock of mauve trimmed with ecru lace and carried a bouquet of pale pink and mauve sweet peas.

Mr. William Smilie, cousin of the bride, supported the groom.

For the happy occasion quantities of Summer flowers were artistically arranged in the various rooms, the ceremony being performed under a large white wedding bell suspended over the French doors, which with floral decorations formed a pretty background for the service.

In the dining-room, where a buffet supper was served, a three tier wedding cake surmounted with real orange blossoms centred the table, while pale pink and mauve streamers were suspended from the electric chandelier to the table.

During the evening Miss D. Lawley and Mrs. A. D. Findlay contributed vocal solos, with Miss N. Nickerson as accompanist, who also played the wedding march for the wedding service.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakemore have left to spend a honeymoon at Sproat Lake and later will make their home in Alberni.

PREY WEDDING ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Miss Edna Grant Married
Last Night to Clement
Sears

St. John's Church was the scene last evening at 8.30 o'clock of a very pretty wedding, when Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick officiated in marriage Edna Margaret, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant and Mr. Clement Sears, of Vancouver, son of the late Mr. J. Sears and of Mrs. A. M. Sears, 924 Empress Avenue, Victoria.

For the happy occasion, a profusion of white flowers were arranged on the chancel rail, while the guest pews were signified by white tulle bows.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. James P. Grant, the bride looked lovely in a gown of grey georgette, heavily embroidered with silver beads, over a mauve foundation, with which was worn a picture hat of mauve tulle with georgette streamers of mauve and grey. The bouquet was composed of Ophelia roses, mauve and pink sweet peas, with streamers of mauve satin ribbon.

As maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Jessie Grant, wore a gown of peach-colored georgette, and a hat of peach-colored georgette.

Miss Nan Riddell, the bridesmaid, was in a French frock of robin's egg blue georgette with hat of grey georgette, edged with grey squirrel. Bouquets of pink and mauve sweet peas with maidenhair fern completed the charming attire of the attendants.

The groom was supported by Mr. Jack Speck, of Victoria, while Mr. Stanley Grant and Mr. Allison Grant, of Vancouver, acted as ushers. Mr. G. Jennings Burnett presided at the organ, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Herbert Leiser sang "At Dawning." Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother, Dr. P. J. Grant, Coal Harbor Road, where Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Sears were assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. J. P. Grant, in a handsome frock of cinnamon brown georgette, with hat to match and corsage of pink roses.

While receiving the hearty good wishes and congratulations of the assembled guests the bride and groom stood under a arch composed of mauve and pink flowers and greenery, while the same color scheme was carried out in the floral decorations in the home.

In the dining-room where the buffet supper was served, a large wedding cake centred the table, while from the chandeliers streamers of mauve and pink tulle were festooned to the corners of the table, on which Dorothy Perkins roses were artistically arranged. Mrs. T. Lammond and Mrs. Harris were responsible for the artistic floral decorations in the home, while those of the church were arranged by Miss Hammond and other friends.

At the home further vocal contributions were rendered by Mrs. Herbert Leiser, with Mr. Leiser as accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears left on the midnight boat for Seattle, and on their return from the honeymoon will make their home in Vancouver. The bride's traveling costume was a suit of fawn velvet, with which was worn a mauve hat and an ermine scarf, the gift of the guests.

To the bride was given a bar pin of honor the groom gave a bar pin of white gold; to the bridesmaid a gold bangle, to the best man, gold cuff links, while to the groom the bride gave gold cuff links.

Convulsive Laughter
Forced by Comedy
at Playhouse Show

An archaeologist might frown in stern disapproval at Reginald Hincks' conception of his pet antiquities, but to the average human being nothing could be more amusing than the antics of the clever artists this week at the Playhouse Theatre, where "Prehistoric Vaudeville" is being presented to crowded houses each night. Each member of the company contributes in some way to the general hilarity and the result is one long laugh which never subsides until long after the drop of the curtain.

Society Leader Plays Important Role in

ed an important small role in "Cytherea," Goddess of Love, directed by George Fitzmaurice, now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

Mrs. Converse, who was Thelma Morgan before her marriage, is a twin sister of Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt. Miss Morgan recently caused a sensation in New York circles when she wrote and published what purported to be a revelation of inner secrets of New York's elite.

After the first day's work in "Cytherea," and after viewing the "rushes," Mr. Goldwyn successfully induced Mrs. Converse to adopt motion picture work as her future career.

"40 Horse Hawkins" at Columbia Theatre is Great Laugh Provoker

Persons who have curiosity as to just how much laughing they can stand without collapse should go to the Columbia, where "40 Horse Hawkins," the latest Universal-Gibson production is being screened. For genuine humor requiring none of the usual mechanical upholstering to "put it across," Hoot Gibson's starring vehicle is all there.

It is true that "40 Horse Hawkins" goes into a past dim to most present day theatrical patrons, but in the days from which this was dragged, this fun-machinery was taken seriously. It is a melodrama of the "East Lynne" type, starring, free of mother and babe, sneering villainess, scornful, coldhearted villain, and all the rest of it.

Strong Comedy and Tragedy Blended in
"Broadway After Dark"

If all the "has beens" and "would be's" among actors inhabiting boarding houses on or about Broadway were stretched out end to end, they would cover a good many miles of Broadway.

Broadway certainly boasts lots of them, brought from all parts of the country, whether to make their fortunes, or recoup lost reputations.

Some of these vaudevillians, troupers and "hans" are represented in "Broadway After Dark," the adaptation of the Clyde Kitch-play-at-the-Dominion Theatre this week. They provide strong comedy and tragedy notes in this Warner Brothers Classic of the Screen, which is a mid-night drama of the lights and shadows of the world's playground.

"Woman on the Jury"
Showing Next Week
on Capitol Screen

Probably most motion picture lovers are unaware that the greatest factor in the success of a photoplay is its theme. They may be unaware of its presence, or unable to describe it in so many words, but if the picture stirred up a heart throb, made one gasp or sent a thrill chasing up and down one's spine it is safe to assert that it had a theme.

It is so many words, but if the picture stirred up a heart throb, made one gasp or sent a thrill chasing up and down one's spine it is safe to assert that it had a theme.

Themes must be unobtrusive, but they must be there. Otherwise the critics will assail the production as one which is implausible and utterly untrue to life.

"The Woman on the Jury," a First National picture which is coming to the Capitol Theatre on Monday for a six-day engagement, possesses one of the strongest themes that have ever been conceived in the mind of an author. Briefly, it is this: There is no sacrifice too great for a woman to make for the sake of love.

In this picture, which was directed by Harry G. Hoyt from Bernard K. Dirn's stage play, Sylvia Breamer is cast in the role of a young bride who is called upon to make the greatest sacrifice of which a woman is capable—that of ruining her own reputation—and the situation which evokes this tremendous ordeal is gripping with emotion and dramatic power.

Others in the cast of this most remarkable picture are Bessie Love, Frank Mayo, Hobart Bosworth, Henry B. Walthall, Lew Cody, Mary Carr, Myrtle Stedman, Roy Stewart, Ford Sterling and Stanton Heck.

FORD'S GROWTH IN CANADA ON SCREEN

Films of Great Canadian Factory to be Seen To-night

The following films will be shown to-night at 8.15: "A Twenty Million Dollar Investment," "Maintaining Ford Predominance," and "The Ford Age."

Films, depicting the growth of the Ford Company in Canada are to be shown at the Chamber of Commerce this evening under the management of the Ford Motor Company of Canada. There are three separate films, each of great and practical interest, which are bound to please the many persons here interested in automobile industry.

What Ford means to Canada will be of keen interest to Canadians when we realize that with little more ceremony than that attending the opening of an ordinary business day, the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, came into possession of its $12,000,000 plant at Ford, Ontario, early in the present year.

To some people the amazing growth of this young industrial giant has been merely a matter of passing comment. But for those who have studied the effect of the Ford investment in Canada—watched the ever-increasing wealth, prosperity and employment that Ford activities have brought to the Dominion—the above announcement holds a deeper significance.

To-day in Canada the Ford industry is an intimate part of the national life. It provides a livelihood for some 30,000 souls—Ford workers and their dependents. It gives total or partial employment to approximately 10,000 workers in Canadian factories, supplying it with goods. It brought last year over $16,000,000 to Canada in export trade, and it paid over $1,000,000 into the national treasury in the form of revenue.

The total Canadian Ford investment is now over $20,000,000—a huge investment based on an abiding faith in Canada's loyalty to Canadian industry.

Ford owners and the general public will more than appreciate the magnitude of Ford enterprise in Canada by attending this free film exhibit, for they will have the opportunity of making a personal visit through the entire Ford Motor Company plant at Ford, Ontario.

Recital Proved
Most Attractive

A. M. Stephen and Thomas MacLean Interested Audience at High School

The recital which took place last evening before a keenly interested audience at the High School Auditorium, proved an unusually attractive educational and peculiarly soulful affair. The programme embodied groups of readings from the pen of A. M. Stephen, poet, lecturer and interpreter, proved an unusually attractive educational and peculiarly soulful affair. the Province. "The Homesteaders," a sketch, sweetly beautiful and full of pathos on a personal episode, in which a mother held the "claim" of her two sons while "overseas" and "The Maples," redundant with the flaming September golden tints of leaf, were all characteristic of a soulful nature, tuneful of cadence, captivating in style, passionate and masterly in poise and balance. Besides his own compositions, the recitalist gave readings from other Western writers. Among these were "The Wolf Wind," by E. P. Fewster of Vancouver, "Lord of the Far Horizons," by Bliss Carman, who has now made the Mainland city his home, and whose new book of poems has been inspired from his sojourn in the West during the latter part of his life. Elizabeth Ecclestone McKay's, "The Wish," from her delightful poems for children, Carrol Aikin's "My Creed," one of the children's poems or "Donald Fraser of this City," "Lamp of Poor Souls," by the late Marjorie Pickthall, whose best works, delicate and ethereal have been accomplished while living on the Pacific coast, and "Drake's Drum" in Canada," by Mrs. Shaw, also of Victoria. As a tribute to Miss Nasmith, the remarkably talented young student of elocution of Victoria, Mr. Stephen at his own request asked her to include two additional numbers to the programme. To the delight of those present Miss Nasmith gave "Little Batsists," and one of Pauline Johnson's immortal Indian tribal poems. Assisting in the proceedings were Thomas MacLean, vocalist, and Mrs. Arthur Foxall, pianist. Mr. MacLean is making great headway in the sphere of his choice. At the 1923 B. C. Music Festival he obtained the highest honors in the vocal solo class, and ardent student as he is, and possessed with a resonant baritone voice of rare quality, he is sure to gain distinction and fame on the concert platform. He has good style, his diction is excellent, his temperamental forces are abundant, and he has a keen sense of the song's message. The songs of his choice last evening were "Youth" (Allister), "Break, Break, Break," "Invictus," "Tommy Lad," the famous baritone solo from "Faust," "Even Bravest Heart" and Speak's "On the Road to Mandalay." Mrs. Foxall supplied the accompaniments with adequacy and skill. The recital was given under the auspices of The City Temple of Victoria and Canadian Poetry Society. Bliss Carman, president.

We will not go so far as a certain Drug Store Proprietor, where a certain gentleman entered and asked for two ounces of sulphur, and on being told the price informed the proprietor that he could buy it for less elsewhere. The Proprietor, familiar with the methods of adulteration, and not possessing an abundance of patience, threw back the money to the gentleman, and told him to go to H— where he could get it for nothing.

Our Overalls, however, are the best, manufactured in Victoria by local labor, next door to the Warehouse, and handed to you at Wholesale Prices. All makes and sizes for $2.10

Victoria was the only harbor which the British Special Service Squadron had visited up to their arrival here on a world's tour into which the Hood and Repulse were able to sail under their own steam and dock together. ## ACQUITTAL FOUND IN MORPHINE CASE

No Proof of Possession Court Holds, in Narcotic Charge

Charged on remand in city police court to-day with illegal possession of morphine, Frances Garnham, arrested by plain clothes officers on Thursday, was acquitted.

Richard C. Lowe, for the defence, urged that the accused had at no time actual possession of the drug, which was found in the hands of a Chinaman at the Occidental Hotel. The package, which contained two pairs of silk stockings and a quantity of morphine, was signed for by the accused, who repudiated its ownership. The delivery of the package took place in the sight of the police.

Magistrate Jay held that it would be unsafe to convict under the circumstances. "Possession," as defined by the Act, had not taken place. The accused would be released.

STUDENTS ARE TAXED NOW IN GERMANY

Berlin, July 11.—Several thousand foreign students in Germany, among them many Americans, were stunned when the Government let it be known that students were not exempt from paying the ten per cent income tax which is imposed upon Germans and foreigners alike. The students contend that it was always understood among them that as their incomes were derived from private sources, and not from any business carried on within Germany, the Government had no intention of taxing them in any form whatsoever.

The question came to a head when an American, who had been studying in Dresden for two years, applied for a visa on his passport which would permit him to leave Germany. The visa was refused on the ground that the student could show no receipt indicating that he had paid a tax on the income derived from his folks at home. An appeal was made to the United States consular officials, but they were unable to aid him in his predicament.

Other Americans in Berlin, Heidelberg and other university towns, since have also taken the matter up with the United States as they were under the impression they would not have to pay the income taxes here they had spent the money from home as fast as it came and as they have no reserve funds on hand to pay the German Government the amounts it demands, they are at a loss now what step to take next.

It is estimated that there are approximately 400 American students here who have been attending the various universities.

School Surveyors Plan Conferences

The Vancouver Island itinerary of the Educational Survey Commission was announced to-day. After holding meetings here next Wednesday and Thursday they will meet in Duncan Friday, July 13; in Ladysmith, July 19; in Nanaimo, Port Alberni, July 21; in Courtenay, July 22; and in Alberni and Port Alberni, July 23.

The war on H.M.S. Lancaster, paid a visit to her when they arrived here on the Special Service ships.

Norman Tiptaft, an advocate of immigration from Great Britain to Canada, and an alderman of the city of Birmingham, yesterday addressed the Victoria-Rotary Club at the Chamber of Commerce cafe. He said that while the Old Country had a surplus population and large capital, Canada had not sufficient of either of these, and he urged that immigration be fostered. He condemned the dolo system which had been adopted in the Old Country following the war, saying that men who obtained money in this way sometimes gained more than the average working-man, providing they worked their business of loafing in the right manner.

The Victoria Cymrodorion Society held a very successful gathering last night of this week in Harmony Hall, Fort Street. The president, J. M. Thomas occupied the chair. The programme of instrumental vocal music and recitation was contributed by Miss Doris Chandler. The McKenzies trio, Miss Gwyneth Protheroe, J. D. Jones and J. M. Thomas. Ping pong competition was held, and the winners were Miss Helen Thomas and Miss Doris Chandler. During the evening D. Evans gave a gratifying report of the bazaar held last month. The meeting passed a hearty vote of thanks to the following for their assistance in this connection: Mrs. David Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, Messrs. Williams, Chandler, Davies, Raffling, Guernsey, Lewis, Bricker, Veness, Morgan, Misses Winnie and Henry Griffiths, W. Jones, Mrs. Jeanne D. Thomas, D. Evans and J. C. Williams. The students contend that it was always understood among them that as their incomes were derived from private sources, and not from any business carried on within Germany, the Government had no intention of taxing them in any form whatsoever.

The question came to a head when an American, who had been studying in Dresden for two years, applied for a visa on his passport which would permit him to leave Germany. The visa was refused on the ground that the student could show no receipt indicating that he had paid a tax on the income derived from his folks at home. An appeal was made to the United States consular officials, but they were unable to aid him in his predicament.

Other Americans in Berlin, Heidelberg and other university towns, since have also taken the matter up with the United States as they were under the impression they would not have to pay the income taxes here they had spent the money from home as fast as it came and as they have no reserve funds on hand to pay the German Government the amounts it demands, they are at a loss now what step to take next.

It is estimated that there are approximately 400 American students here who have been attending the various universities.

School Surveyors Plan Conferences

The Vancouver Island itinerary of the Educational Survey Commission was announced to-day. After holding meetings here next Wednesday and Thursday they will meet in Duncan Friday, July 13; in Ladysmith, July 19; in Nanaimo, Port Alberni, July 21; in Courtenay, July 22; and in Alberni and Port Alberni, July 23.

The war on H.M.S. Lancaster, paid a visit to her when they arrived here on the Special Service ships.

Norman Tiptaft, an advocate of immigration from Great Britain to Canada, and an alderman of the city of Birmingham, yesterday addressed the Victoria-Rotary Club at the Chamber of Commerce cafe. He said that while the Old Country had a surplus population and large capital, Canada had not sufficient of either of these, and he urged that immigration be fostered. He condemned the dolo system which had been adopted in the Old Country following the war, saying that men who obtained money in this way sometimes gained more than the average working-man, providing they worked their business of loafing in the right manner.

The Victoria Cymrodorion Society held a very successful gathering last night of this week in Harmony Hall, Fort Street. The president, J. M. Thomas occupied the chair. The programme of instrumental vocal music and recitation was contributed by Miss Doris Chandler. The McKenzies trio, Miss Gwyneth Protheroe, J. D. Jones and J. M. Thomas. Ping pong competition was held, and the winners were Miss Helen Thomas and Miss Doris Chandler. During the evening D. Evans gave a gratifying report of the bazaar held last month. The meeting passed a hearty vote of thanks to the following for their assistance in this connection: Mrs. David Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, Messrs. Williams, Chandler, Davies, Raffling, Guernsey, Lewis, Bricker, Veness, Morgan, Misses Winnie and Henry Griffiths, W. Jones, Mrs. Jeanne D. Thomas, D. Evans and J. C. Williams. The meeting closed with refreshments and dancing.

ACQUITTAL FOUND IN MORPHINE CASE

No Proof of Possession Court Holds, in Narcotic Charge

Charged on remand in city police court to-day with illegal possession of morphine, Frances Garnham, arrested by plain clothes officers on Thursday, was acquitted.

Richard C. Lowe, for the defence, urged that the accused had at no time actual possession of the drug, which was found in the hands of a Chinaman at the Occidental Hotel. The package, which contained two pairs of silk stockings and a quantity of morphine, was signed for by the accused, who repudiated its ownership. The delivery of the package took place in the sight of the police.

Magistrate Jay held that it would be unsafe to convict under the circumstances. "Possession," as defined by the Act, had not taken place. The accused would be released.

STUDENTS ARE TAXED NOW IN GERMANY

Berlin, July 11.—Several thousand foreign students in Germany, among them many Americans, were stunned when the Government let it be known that students were not exempt from paying the ten per cent income tax which is imposed upon Germans and foreigners alike. The students contend that it was always understood among them that as their incomes were derived from private sources, and not from any business carried on within Germany, the Government had no intention of taxing them in any form whatsoever.

The question came to a head when an American, who had been studying in Dresden for two years, applied for a visa on his passport which would permit him to leave Germany. ROCKEFELLER
GAVE UNIVERSITY
$35,000,000

Last Gift of $10,000,000
Was Final One He Inti-

Chicago, July 11.—Urging adoption by the city of Chicago of the University of Chicago "in fact as well as in name," President Ernest De Witt Burton brought out that John D. Rockefeller has given $35,000,000 to the institution, "a sum almost or quite without parallel in the whole history of education."

President Burton made the statement after announcing that Mr. Rockefeller had discontinued his gifts, that the university has no right of further approach to the founders as individuals, "and less reason to make such an approach to Mr. Rockefeller." To the university's resources of approximately $54,000,000, President Burton said, "there should be added within the next ten or fifteen years at least an equal amount."

"When in December, 1910, Mr. Rockefeller promised to give the university the sum of $10,000,000 in ten annual payments, he accompanied this pledge with a statement that this was his final gift, and commended the university to the friendly citizens of Chicago as those to whom it should look for the means with which to insure its future development," President Burton asserted.

"In pursuance of this statement and policy Mr. Rockefeller discontinued his gifts."

London, July 11.—Despite the fact that in Great Britain there is to-day one insane person in every 200, contrasted with one in every 650 in 1870, there is no justification for the theory, so often expressed, that a process of racial degeneration is under way, in the opinion of E. J. Liddet, of the Eugenics Education Society, expressed at the recent conference of the National Union of the Professional and Industrial Blind of Great Britain.

Despite the increase in the number of insane, Mr. Liddet said, nature herself was constantly striving to regain the normal average, even in the highly organized and complex communities of the present day. Those of weak mentality, he said, are not each other, and eventually brought about their own extinction in this way.

DIRIGIBLE TO MAKE ATLANTIC FLIGHT

ZR-3, Built in Germany For the United States, is Being Tested

4,500-Mile Journey Planned; to be Used For Commercial Purposes

Washington, July 11.—Delivery of the German-made dirigible airship ZR-3 from the Friedrichshafen plant to the United States navy air station at Lakehurst, N.J., will bring to this country the first commercial airship of the Zeppelin type ever to be flown under the United States flag. The craft is being tested at Friedrichshafen, in preparation for the flight across the Atlantic, announcement of the date of which is now awaited.

FOR COMMERCIAL USE

While the airship will be in custody of the navy and will be listed with the naval aircraft, she was designed and built for commercial use, and under present plans will be used by the navy to demonstrate the practicability of commercial aircraft traffic in the United States.

The ZR-3 is similar in appearance but somewhat larger than the navy dirigible Shenandoah. While the Shenandoah was the first vessel of the kind ever built in the United States, however, the ZR-3 was numbered 126 at the Zeppelin plant, and is the product of more than twenty-five years of German experience in the construction and operation, including the German war fleets. She is the last word in lighter-than-air design, and will form the foundation for the building of future American commercial fleets if this proves to be a practicable form of transportation in the United States.

At the close of the war the Allied Powers and the United States restricted the Zeppelin firm to the construction of airships of not more than 30,000 cubic metres, gas capacity, although the last of the war service Zeppelins built by the plant had approached a 70,000 cubic metre capacity.

ONLY LARGE ONE BUILT

By agreement with the Allied Powers the Zeppelin plant was permitted to build one ship of 70,000 cubic metre capacity for the United States in place of the two ships of 30,000 cubic metres' capacity each. This was necessary in order that a ship of sufficient size to cross the Atlantic might be constructed. The Allied Powers waived the size restriction, however, only on the condition that the big ship should not be used by the United States for military purposes.

Contracts with the Zeppelin company were completed in June, 1922, and a group of United States naval officers was sent to Friedrichshafen to watch progress on the vessel day

The Esquimaux School Choir, which has made remarkable strides under the direction of F. Waddington, will appear in a recital to be given at the High School at 8.30 o'clock to-night. The occasion is the first of the Summer School concerts. The interpretative choir, which is composed of sixty-five voices, will be assisted in the recital by Drury Pryce, violinist and leader of the Victoria Orchestral Society, and Harold Taylor, cellist.

Included in the musical events connected with the annual Summer School is the appearance of the now famous Esquimaux School Choir which will render one of its delightful programmes in the High School Auditorium this evening commencing at 8.30. The programme to be given consists of five devotional numbers, mostly classic, five national folk-songs and a lighter and popular group concluding what will be really a demonstration concert to the 500 or more Summer School students now gathered in their annual educational sessions. Assisting the choir will be Drury Pryce, violinist; Harold Taylor, cellist; and Chris Wade, pianist, who, besides playing some solos, will be heard in an instrumental trio. Frederick Waddington, the choir's conductor, by day. They were cordially received by the German concern, which desired to demonstrate its knowledge of the art of building air cruisers.

The ZR-3 was an overall length of 655 feet, a diameter of 80.7 feet, and a gas capacity of 2,400,000 cubic feet, is driven by five 400-horsepower engines, giving a maximum speed of 2,000 horsepower, and is expected to reach a maximum speed of nearly eighty miles an hour. She is a fully equipped passenger vessel with accommodations for thirty passengers in addition to the crew, the passenger accommodations comprising sleeping cars and including an up-to-date electrical kitchen. The passenger cabin is divided into five compartments which have large windows furnishing a wide view of the country below as the ship is in flight.

The ship will require an operating crew of about twenty-four men, and the quarters of the crew are in the "corridor" within the envelope of the vessel, while the passenger cabin and officers' quarters are secured rigidly to the keel at the forward end of the ship.

AT MOORING POST

The ZR-3 was equipped in construction with the bow mooring mechanism similar to that designed in the United States for the Shenandoah. The ship may either be moored at the mast at Lakehurst or placed within the hangar already awaiting her, and which is big enough to house both the German-built craft and the Shenandoah at the same time. The Lakehurst hangar is so large that the Capitol at Washington could be placed within it with little difficulty, or the Woolworth Building at New York, lying on its side, could easily be accommodated without touching the roof or side walls.

The direct route from Friedrichshafen to the east coast of the United States is about 3,500 nautical miles. To get the advantage of favorable winds and other conditions, however, the ZR-3 will take a southerly course across Southern France and via Cape Finisterre and the Azores to the south of the Bermuda Islands, and thence to Lakehurst, a distance of approximately 4,500 nautical miles. The trip will be made with experienced German officers and men in charge. The ship carries more than thirty-three tons of gasoline besides her oil supplies, water for ballast and other purposes and about $50,000 worth of spare parts.

In addition to carrying thirty passengers, the ZR-3 has a lifting capacity that will permit her to be loaded with fifteen tons of freight or baggage. Estimates of the cruising radius of the ship made by Zeppelin officers places the distance at a maximum of 8,000 nautical miles or a safe radius of 7,000 nautical miles without re-fueling. It is pointed out that practically any inhabited part of the earth can be reached from New York in less than that distance.

TO USE HELIUM

For the trip from Germany the ZR-3 will be inflated with hydrogen gas, but under the present policy of the Washington Government, helium, the non-explosive gas developed during the Great War, will be substituted for hydrogen before operations in the United States are undertaken. The Zeppelin experts estimate that under any normal condition, the ZR-3 would be able to fly from San Francisco to Honolulu and back between Saturday morning and the following Tuesday morning, spending the entire Sunday in Honolulu. Such a trip now requires more than ten days by steamship, yet the airship could carry thirty passengers and fifteen tons of freight or baggage and make the journey as a week-end jaunt.

Plan Big Picnic At Sooke River

Civil Servants Leave Early Tomorrow; Dance at Paradise Inn

Six tally-hos and numerous other cars will carry the Civil Service employees to picnic at the Sooke River flats to-morrow. The first tally-ho will leave Victoria at 10.30 a.m. and a late car will leave at 2.15 p.m. to accommodate those who cannot leave the city earlier.

After the picnic programme for the out-of-doors has been completed, the Parliament Buildings employees will journey to Paradise Inn, under the management of J. W. Wallis. The Civil Service five-piece orchestra will supply the music for dancing.

TO SING AT SUMMER SCHOOL CONCERT TO-NIGHT

The Esquimaux School Choir, which has made remarkable strides under the direction of F. Waddington, will appear in a recital to be given at the High School at 8.30 o'clock to-night. The occasion is the first of the Summer School concerts. To get the advantage of favorable winds and other conditions, however, the ZR-3 will take a southerly course across Southern France and via Cape Finisterre and the Azores to the south of the Bermuda Islands, and thence to Lakehurst, a distance of approximately 4,500 nautical miles. The trip will be made with experienced German officers and men in charge. The ship carries more than thirty-three tons of gasoline besides her oil supplies, water for ballast and other purposes and about $50,000 worth of spare parts.

In addition to carrying thirty passengers, the ZR-3 has a lifting capacity that will permit her to be loaded with fifteen tons of freight or baggage. Estimates of the cruising radius of the ship made by Zeppelin officers places the distance at a maximum of 8,000 nautical miles or a safe radius of 7,000 nautical miles without re-fueling. It is pointed out that practically any inhabited part of the earth can be reached from New York in less than that distance.

TO USE HELIUM

For the trip from Germany the ZR-3 will be inflated with hydrogen gas, but under the present policy of the Washington Government, helium, the non-explosive gas developed during the Great War, will be substituted for hydrogen before operations in the United States are undertaken. The Zeppelin experts estimate that under any normal condition, the ZR-3 would be able to fly from San Francisco to Honolulu and back between Saturday morning and the following Tuesday morning, spending the entire Sunday in Honolulu. Such a trip now requires more than ten days by steamship, yet the airship could carry thirty passengers and fifteen tons of freight or baggage and make the journey as a week-end jaunt.

Plan Big Picnic At Sooke River

Civil Servants Leave Early Tomorrow; Dance at Paradise Inn

Six tally-hos and numerous other cars will carry the Civil Service employees to picnic at the Sooke River flats to-morrow. The first tally-ho will leave Victoria at 10.30 a.m. and a late car will leave at 2.15 p.m. to accommodate those who cannot leave the city earlier.

After the picnic programme for the out-of-doors has been completed, the Parliament Buildings employees will journey to Paradise Inn, under the management of J. W. Wallis. The Civil Service five-piece orchestra will supply the music for dancing.

prohibition has caused a transformation that is little short of the miraculous.

DR. C. CHRISTY IS TO VISIT TORONTO

Scientist Among Leaders Who Will Attend British Association's Annual Meeting

Toronto, July 11 (Canadian Press).—Dr. Cuthbert Christy, English scientist and naturalist, is one of the many leaders in science who will come to Toronto for the ninety-second annual meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science August 6 to 13. Dr. Christy was one of a committee of three that established the fact that the tsetse fly is the transmitter of the sleeping sickness which kills thousands of negroes in Africa annually. He later sprang into fame by killing the first of the mysterious okapi, a forest animal of the giraffe species.

The sleeping sickness of Africa is a very different disease from encephalitis lethargica, the disorder occasionally prevalent on the North American continent, sometimes called "sleeping sickness." Dr. Christy makes plain. The latter malady he refers to as "sleepy sickness." The African sleeping sickness, Dr. Christy explains, originates always from the bite of the tsetse fly.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

SPECIALTIES SHARE IN FURTHER ADVANCE

New York, July 11. (By R. P. Clark & Co., Ltd.)—The stock market was a trifle lower at the beginning of trading today but gradually developed hardening tendencies and in the last hour some issues advanced rather rapidly and the closing tone of the general market was very strong. Much bearish talk is around with respect to the oil situation and while some surface features would seem to be a kind of bullish initiation in this section of the stock list, still we think that recent cuts in crude oil and gasoline have somewhat served to check production as demonstrated by the American Petroleum Institute figures of yesterday. In fact we believe that the declining tendency in petroleum issues of late reflects in full measure the unfavorable features now so much dilated on in the industry. It has been rather popular of late to suggest that the American Petroleum Institute figures of yesterday, in fact we believe that the declining tendency in petroleum issues of late reflects in full measure the unfavorable features now so much dilated on in the industry. It has been rather popular of late to suggest that the American Petroleum Institute figures of yesterday, in fact we believe that the declining tendency in petroleum issues of late reflects in full measure the unfavorable features now so much dilated on in the industry.

The tenor of the foreign news seems to be more cheerful. The market in the last few days has been absorbing liberal profit takings and rather spirited upsurge in many of the prominent industrial leaders today indicates that the absorptive power of the market is highly impressive. Rising prices will be interrupted now and then as a result of profit taking desire but we still believe we are in an era of advancing prices in the stock market.

CORN LEADS UPWARD MOVEMENT

Chicago, Ill., July 11. (By R. P. Clark & Co., Ltd.)—Wheat: The market was strong to-day, reflecting further evidence of a strong world situation as indicated by the further advances abroad and strength at Winnipeg. Cash prices held relatively steady and there is no great pressure of hedging, although the movement southwest is increasing rapidly. Liverpool was 1½ higher at the close. The Canadian crop condition is officially placed at 92 against 106 a year ago. The average decrease was placed at 4.32 per cent. The cash market is fairly firm with fancy Spring wheat selling at $1.45.

Export inquiry fair and there has been some buying of futures for foreign account. The market is in a trading position with hedging sales likely to put a brake on the market on strong spots and with export sales likely to take the slack on the dips. Corn: July advanced to new high levels, and cash prices advanced faster than the July, reflecting the tight position of the old months. No. 2 yellow sold at 1.11. This is remarkable as there is supposed to be considerable old corn back in the country, but farmers are not letting loose of much. Shipping sales were 150,000 bushels, indicating a big need for corn now in the East. Reports of Argentine wheat being offered at very low prices did not have much effect, but there was plenty of December and May for sale on the bulge, while weather and crop reports were a little more favorable. At this level think there should be a great deal of caution used in following the buying side.

Data: Trade more active after a dull period early with the market showing some strength in sympathy with corn and on reports of prospects for poor yields in some sections. However, general crop news is bullish and advances will probably run into considerable selling with the new crop movement just ahead. Cash sales were 135,000 with spot prices relatively ½ cent lower. Receipts were 46 cars.

Rye: Was sluggish and cash houses were credited with selling. General demand slow for both cash and futures.

BIBLE MIRACLES IN LIGHT OF TEST BY MODERN SCIENCE

Rev. F. W. Hardy Points Out That Agnosticism Has Had a Good Innings

"I am not surprised to find that the local Victoria Public Library shelves have the best presentation of rationalism and agnosticism, but I think the time has come when those books may well be replaced by newer and better ones that are both scientific and spiritual," stated Rev. Frank W. Hardy of Hampshire Road Methodist Church, in speaking to the Pacific Coast Theological Conference here yesterday on "Miracles."

Mr. Hardy touched on the changed attitude of scientists particularly students of evolution, with regard to miracles, which a few years ago they denied could happen, orthodox science demanding absolute and unbroken continuity on behalf of its theory of evolution. "But the prevailing negative attitude of science," he went on, "is being rapidly abandoned to-day. Momentous discoveries are leading to enlarging understanding of the possibilities in the physical, the rational and the spiritual realms of life. Just as science using radio activity as an instrument has formed new conceptions of material relationships, so the psychologist sees a new and unexplored world of psychological and spiritual realms of life. Just as is impossible. What is inexplicable in one age becomes plainly explicable to the next. Agnosticism as a working creed has had a good innings, but its bluff and boldness has held the field rather than merit. It is now called in question, as neither adequate nor satisfying."

"Psychological investigation is only in its infancy, yet we already have evidence that the latent powers of humanity remain largely unfathomed. Man is conscious of relations to the natural order which are shared by no other forms of life known to us."

"Growing interest is being aroused in the various manifestations of exceptional phases of human phenomena. Dreams, hypothesis, telepathy, clairvoyance, clairaudience somnambulism, trance, spiritual exaltation and kindred mental phases of life at present we can neither explain, nor explain away."

"The matchless, vital endowment of Jesus makes it most credible that His life should produce unique physical and 'psychical' results. Jesus possessed such healing power, limited by unbelief, but capable of producing the greatest changes wherever he encountered faith."

"Miracles consist in seeing the heaven that lies all around us, in recognizing the gospel when we hear it preached, in remembering that the still small voice always speaks if only we are not too busy nor too noisy to listen," Mr. Hardy stated.

RELIGIOUS PAPERS ARE SLIPPING

Competition and Failure to Meet New Conditions Hit Weekly Publications

Discussing the function, and value of Christian literature, Rev. Edward Laird Mills of Portland told the Pacific Coast Theological Conference yesterday afternoon that the religious journals were having a hard struggle, due not only to increased competition from the secular press, but owing to the failure to increase cost in keeping with production, and the shift of advertising to magazines of general circulation. He complained that two-thirds of the ministry were utterly indifferent to promoting the circulation of religious papers. Life also was changing more rapidly than editorial perception and methods, the growth of agricultural, women's and children's magazines having greatly reduced the sphere of the church paper.

WHAT DEFICITS SHOW

"The futility of trying to get along without religion is already becoming manifest to careful thinkers," Mr. Mills said. "It will soon be apparent also to the rank and file and when it is the legitimate, irresistible demand for education in religion, will not only double our Sunday Schools, cause the installation of Week Day Religious Instruction in every town and city, but will set the religious press going on a new lap of usefulness. It is still the function of such literature to preach in print the truth of the everlasting Gospel. Its quality will depend upon the degree of support given it by the Christian public. That support will be finally determined by the depth and vitality of religious experience in the hearts of the people. Deficits in the religious press indicate chiefly a certain shallowness and inadequacy in the religious life of our time."

THE SECULAR DAILIES

"A good deal of what may be called semi-religious matter finds its way into the secular dailies and popular magazines," he pointed out. "Frank Crane was once a preacher. Where he then addressed one person he now speaks as a contributing editor to syndicated dailies to a thousand. He and other writers like him, however, must change their attention to a good humored treatment of the purely ethical aspects of religion. Anything doctrinal must be rigidly eschewed. In the eyes of some this is a great advance. Others will view with alarm the fact that the bulk of our population is growing up without any grounding in distinctively Christian doctrine. The education of to-day aims with good manners, once in a while getting up to the point of good morals but having nothing to say about religion. This has its effect upon the response made by the public and appeals made from the pulpit and in pastoral work. Those appeals are fruitful just about in proportion as there is a Christian background of thinking and feeling. Where that is not present, the minister must radically change the method of approach and his progress is sure to be much slower. In one of our Northwestern cities there are 42,000 children of grade school age, 11,000 of these are in Sunday School. It is highly probable that the other 31,000 receive little or nothing in the way of religious instruction. The preachers of that city-to-morrow-and-the-day-after are going to have a mighty hard time. A Christian paper in the home testifies to the belief on the part of the parents that religion is a worth while interest."

ELDERLY MAN DIES SUDDENLY AT SOOKE

Late James Cormack Was Respected Pioneer of District

Death with tragic suddenness overtook James Cormack, elderly resident of Sooke, one hour after his arrival at the St. Joseph's Hospital on Thursday evening. The late Mr. Cormack was an employe of the Sooke Harbor Canning Company, and was taken suddenly ill shortly after his return from work.

Towards 11 p.m. he complained of violent pain and was taken by Burt Acreman and Felix Norton to the hospital. Death followed an hour later. Post-mortem and inquest will be held as a matter of form, the latter to take place at the B.C. Funeral premises at 4 p.m. to-day, under Coroner E. C. Hart. A brother, Clyde Cormack, resides at Santa Barbara, Cal.

The late Mr. Cormack was a well-known and highly-respected pioneer of the Sooke district. He was employed for many years by the firm of Findlay, Durham & Brodie, and when the cannery was taken over by the Sooke Harbor Canning Company, Mr. Cormack continued at his post under the new regime. His sudden death has occasioned widespread regret on the part of his many friends.

ELECT OFFICERS FOR NEW TERM

Conference Finds Itself Out of Debt, and With Bright Future

Raising the subscription fee has placed the Pacific Coast Theological Conference on its feet financially, it was reported at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon here. Rev. J. R. Robertson, the secretary, said that fifty-nine paid members had attended the Victoria meeting. After meeting all liabilities, he estimated the organization would go forward with a membership of sufficient size, a balance of about $25 into the coming year.
